Editor, Photographer & Historian

Gerald Brown (705 – 953 – 9794)
(gerald.brown@explornet.com)

- President Stewart called the meeting to order at 10:30 am. He conveyed a warm welcome to Harry Newton, Darcy McGee (potentially new members) and also to number of spouses who were in attendance.
- He then introduced Mr. John Hunter – piper and Mr. Jim Lindsay – trumpeter who would be taking a very important part in the service to follow.
- He then called upon Milt Battersby to inform the membership about any health related issues concerning our membership. Milt informed the group that Don Sindrey's was still improving quite well and as far as he knew, all the rest of our membership was still in good health at the present time.
- Next item Stewart addressed was our annual Christmas Party which is scheduled to take place on Tuesday, December 14th. (starting at 12:00 pm) at Hobart's Restaurant, which is located on the main street in the Kent Street Mall.
- President Stewart introduced four very special guests that were also in attendance and had been invited to take part in the service that was to follow :
 - Major Leo Phillips, Administrative Commander, 22nd Wing, North Bay;
 - Sergeant Terry Wickens, a veteran who served in Korea, Egypt, Cyprus and Suez conflicts and presently is the National President of the Korea War Veterans Association of Canada;
 - Inspector Mark Mitchell, a police officer of 22 years, to represent the men and women of the City of Kawartha Lakes Police Service;
 - Mark Pankhurst, Assistant Fire Chief, to represent the men and women of the City of Kawartha Lakes Fire Rescue Service.

Note :

-  No official meeting for December because of our annual Christmas Party which will be held at Hobart's Restaurant on Tuesday, December 14th starting at 12:00 pm.

Special Guests – Christmas Party

- Rev Bob Quick with a Christmas message;
- Bob May to provide the musical entertainment.

- President Stewart noted that as was our custom we choose to use our November meeting to recognize and show our respect for the men and women who serve in our armed forces; for the veterans of peace keeping missions; for those who fought in recent conflicts and to honour and respect those who gave their lives in the service of our great country. We also like to recognize the men and women who serve at home, - the police officers and firefighters who all too often are required to lay down their lives in service to the community.
- First item on the program agenda, Past President Bruce Faulkner was introduced and asked to come forward to commence the service.
- Bruce started out his address by bringing every ones' attention to the three flags that were all on display at the front of the room beside him. They consisted of, the Union Jack, a WWII Air Force Banner and our Canadian National flag. He then elaborated on their some of their history and what importance they represented to our country, today and in the past.
- Next he called upon President Stewart to come forward and take part in a Navy "MAKE IT SO" bell ringing exercise /procedure that signified it was 11:00 am and time to start the service program.
