Our Guest Speaker—Barry Devolin

Barry Devolin was born in Peterborough and raised in Haliburton. From 2004 until 2015, he served as the Member of Parliament for Haliburton-Kawartha Lakes-Brock, and was Assistant Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons for 7 years.

In late 2015, Barry and his family (Ursula, George, Molly) departed on a six month trip around the world, ending in South Korea, where Barry assumed the position of Associate Professor and Director of the Asian Studies Masters Program at Sejong University. While in Korea, Barry focused on issues related to North Korea, especially human rights and challenges faced by North Korean defectors.

Upon returning to Haliburton in early 2018, Barry followed his passion and launched a new career in the travel business. Today, he and his wife Ursula operate TravelMaven, a small group walking tour company, and Barry also works part-time as a Tour Director with DeNureTours (specializing in hiking tours).
